

Central Utah Water Conservancy District

Proposed Tax Increase

FY2020-2021

Facts:

The proposed tax rate increase to 0.0004 will provide an additional $3.2 million over the current certified tax rate of 0.000382.

The CUWCD Board of Trustees is considering increasing its tax rate to the statutory authorized rate of 0.0004 from the certified tax rate of 0.000382 for the following reasons:

1. District Construction
2. Debt Management
3. Capital Improvement / Replacement

The annual tax increase, by county, based on the average residential value is shown in the table below:

County	Average Residential Value	Annual Tax Without Increase	Annual Tax With Increase	Difference In Total Annual Tax
Duchesne	$157,984	$33.19	$34.76	$1.56
Juab	$243,938	$51.25	$53.67	$2.41
Salt Lake	$388,500	$81.62	$85.47	$3.85
Sanpete	$220,000	$46.22	$48.40	$2.18
Summit	$201,980	$42.44	$44.44	$2.00
Uintah	$195,209	$41.01	$42.95	$1.93
Utah	$356,000	$74.80	$78.32	$3.52
Wasatch	$513,293	$107.84	$112.92	$5.08

Additional CUWCD financial information can be found at:

<http://cuwcd.com/resources.html>

http://auditor.utah.gov/audit\_reports/

<https://transparent.utah.gov/>